To Whom It May Concern:

It gives me great pleasure to recommend Luke Stevenson and his music to you. My family and I have had the pleasure of enjoying Luke's performances for many years. The connection he establishes with his audiences is genuine, personal, oftentimes emotional, and in my experience, rare.

As Nevada's State Treasurer, I had the honor of hosting the 2005 National Association of State Treasurers Annual Conference at Lake Tahoe. Each evening the state treasurers were invited to a different venue and entertainment, and our most successful evening featured Luke and his timeless songs. I was confident Luke would be a good fit for our group and his reception by our guests was even more positive than anticipated.

Luke is able to engage his audience with his easy-going personality and his wonderful renditions of timeless songs. Luke was able to satisfy every song request from his huge repertoire and our guests from all across the country joined in by singing along and dancing to so many favorites. Following the event, many of my colleagues raved about the evening and how much they enjoyed Luke's performance.

Working with Luke's management staff was exceptional. They accommodated our constantly changing schedule during our organizing stages and made sure that we were taken care of fairly and professionally.

If you are looking for classic music, delivered tastefully in a clean and clear fashion, I highly recommend Luke. I believe that Luke will make a valuable addition to any event you are planning and his contribution will be positive and memorable.

Feel free to contact me with any questions you may have regarding Luke's qualifications.

Sincerely,
